My goal is to facilitate your innate healing ability through the use of The Body Code™, (which includes The Emotion Code®), Hypnotherapy and Healing Touch, either individually or in combination, to achieve optimal health and wellbeing.

The Body Code™ seeks to restore physical, emotional, spiritual or mental balance through the use of muscle testing and a technique based on ancient Chinese medicine to discover and release, correct and/or reset the reason for the imbalance.

Hypnotherapy is used in two ways: Clinical Hypnosis accesses the subconscious mind to elicit positive behavioral, emotional and physiological changes. Regression Therapy allows us to go to the root of an issue in order to transform and resolve issues. The way in which I work helps you find your own inner resources for healing and it is important you be prepared to go into deeper or buried memories. The truth of any memories that may come to your conscious awareness during our sessions is for you to decide.

Healing Touch is an energy based therapy using light or no touch to restore balance to the energy field to place you in the most optimal state for healing physically, emotionally, spiritually and mentally.

I will give you my best professional service to assist you on this journey, but ultimately you are responsible for your own healing.
